Coronavirus update: New contactless services to help keep you safe. Got a deal with just 1 problem. Sales manager wanted to get me to purchase an add on product for theft protection and safety. They should have had that mentioned in their pricing before a customer seen the add on this web page. Detail shop used a razor to remove paperwork on window and cut the windowtint that was on the vehicle after I signed the paperwork. Can't get good help anywhere it seems. Sold the car I was looking at. No one from dealership finance department contacted me, even though I told them I was preapproved. Did me a favor by selling the car, but didn't like the manner in which my business was handled. Dealer was extremely nice and accommodating without being pushy or trying to talk Us into something. Helpful and honest. Pleasant experience. I bought a new arrival on the lot so they didn't know everything about the vehicle. They called the previous owner to answer my questions. They took a credit app but never contacted me again. They could of let me know I was denied. Didnt respond to my texts either. Terrible dealership to buy a car from. Drove 3 hrs to look at a car. Purchased said car and they offered to do an oil change that took 4hrs and then turned into needing glow plugs that took 2 more hours. At least I was able to get a refund and walk away. I would strongly recommend not doing business with this dealership. Dakota was very helpful and there were no high pressure sales. It was a great experience, and we love our new truck! Quick to respond back to me. Very honest about condition of vehicle and they worked with us on the price since we were out of town. Super helpful. Were able to get me a great loan for the vehicle and only took a couple hours at the dealership to get everything finalized and the keys handed over. Would go back again, for my next car. Awesome Customer service and very helpful and friendly! Was very pleased would defiantly do service with them again!! They contacted me directly after my request. The car sold before I could have a look. Worked with me on all aspects of purchase break down to a follow up indicator light issue. Great follow through after the sale. I didn't get the truck I wanted but they gave me a 5 year newer truck that has no rust and a near perfect body for the same price thaks east coast auto. I wanna do my car buying with these people love the prices from other places I have talked too very fair. I had questions about a listing but when I called someone had already purchased it. Staff was very helpful and told me about another similar vehicle that was available. Thanks ECAS. Excellent customer service and the staff went above and beyond to ensure we knew all that was needed to make a purchase. Great team East Coast Auto! All I received back was a question mark from dealer. That was last I herd After that. Very quick to respond. Tyler was responsive and helpful. He took pics of everything I needed and addressed all the issues I had with the vehicle. The sales process went smoothly and they were fair and honest with info. They provided options for payment and were good to work with. Id recommend these guys. I bought this one. They even agreed to fix a small problem at their cost. I asked a question about the low mileage and price but got no response. If the dealer contacted me it was a generic response which did not answer my questions. Was very prompt in having someone show me vehicle when I arrived up to see it. Explained could not be test driven because waiting on a part to arrive. After seeing the vehicles frame rusted, scratches and dings, I left then contacted the seller a day later. David Leavitt made special arrangements to meet me before normal business hours. In retrospect looking at a car in the rain was not a wise choice. The car did not make it home before experiencing drive ability problems along with a check engine light. Good folks here- responsive, helpful, and transparent through the process of test driving and buying. Pontiac has always been the performance division of General Motors, with a focus on sporty engines and stylish exteriors. Coming in at the start of the gas crisis, its midsize body and sports suspension were probably too heavy to be practical in terms of fuel economy. But GM's marketing goal was to serve the Grand Am up as a combination of European styling, engineering, and luxury with American power and performance. The first generation of Grand Ams lasted three model years, from to Both the sedan and coupe featured a heavy-duty suspension, anti-sway bars, inch performance tires, and powerful V8 engines that left it trailing only the Firebird and Corvette. Nice interior touches included reclining leather bucket seats, an automatic light dimmer, and mahogany trim. But sales were never high, and the fuel crunch tolled its death knell. A brief reappearance in , again as a sedan and coupe, came with either a V6 or V8 engine and had a lot of nice power features, including an adjustable driver's seat. But the most successful Grand Am first appeared in , remodeled as a compact, albeit a large compact. Again as a sedan or coupe, it was marketed as an affordable performance car, practical for families and first-time buyers, but with enough thrill behind the wheel to keep you interested. The G6 eventually replaced the Grand Am in This last generation of Grand Ams was Pontiac's top seller and one of the top ten best selling cars generally in the United States. Despite high praise for its handling, zippy engines, fuel economy, and sporty appearance, it was plagued by repair nightmares and complaints of cheap-looking parts that turned many people away from Pontiac. This didn't seem to hurt sales of the Grand Am, as

Pontiac was readying itself for an overall rebranding of its lineup, and the new G6 will be its flagship sedan for the future.
